18th June 2007

Dear Parents,

You may remember that our school published a page in The Nationalist earlier in the year and many other schools in Carlow and neighbouring counties have published pages each week since. Our page has been judged the best by the editorial team and the school will receive educational books and resources to the value of €1,000. Well done in particular to 6th Class and Ms. Denieffe – our “Young Publishers” have done us proud!

Our school received its Science Excellence award last week. The school was represented at the awards ceremony in Kilkenny by pupils Natalie Glendon, Edwin Drea and Tammy Clarke and teachers Mrs. Roche and Mrs. O’Connor. The award is a recognition of the work that we have been doing recently in promoting science education. I think that John Tyndall would be pleased! Well done to all.

6th Class will be hosting a coffee afternoon in the school this Wednesday from 1 – 2:30 p.m. We are asking for donations of cakes, buns, tarts etc. to be left into the school by Wednesday 11 a.m. at the latest. All are welcome to drop in for a chat and a cup of tea on the day. All funds raised will go to charity. Thanks in advance for your support.

Due to our increasing numbers we have decided this year to have two end-of-year masses, one for Junior Infants – 2nd Class on Wednesday at 11:30 a.m. and for 3rd – 6th Classes on Thursday at 11:30 a.m., both in the school. Before Thursday’s Mass the Parents Association will make a small presentation to the 6th Class (see below). These masses are intended to mark the end of the year in a spiritual way and if any of you would like to come along you are welcome.

Would you please make sure that all of your child’s property is taken from the school before the holidays? In particular we have some unclaimed jumpers, coats etc. which will be sent to a better home if left unclaimed. Please check in the school on Monday next (25th). Thanks for your cooperation.

School reports and booklists will be issued in the next few days. Please keep the booklists in a safe place!

We say goodbye next week to our Sixth Class; Niamh Fahy, Moya Foley, Nicole Hanley, Helen, Alison and Michelle Long, Amie O’Brien, Georgina Clarke, Anne Smyth, Kayleigh Drea, Sophie Holohan, Caolin Finn, Conor Murphy, J.J. Glendon, Aaron Clarke, Martin Kelly, Philip Watkins, Luke Decaux, Peter Shaw, Philip Kehoe and Jonathan Byrne. The Parents Association will make a small presentation to them before the Mass on Thursday. We wish them well for the rest of their schooldays and for all of their lives. Go n-éirí an bóthar leo.

Yours sincerely,

Principal
