5th October 2015

Dear Parents,

In cooperation with the Parents Association we have organised a free talk for parents next week on Wednesday 14th October at 7:30 p.m. in the school. The talk is called "Safe and Secure Online". The presentation provides the knowledge and skills adults need to ensure the safety of the children in their care.

The course aims to inform parents of children of primary school age of various aspects of online safety. The main topics to be covered will be:

- Safety online - Social Networks, Privacy, Gaming, online reputation
- Cyberbullying
- Cyber Security - Phones, Privacy settings, practical steps for parents to protect their home network from offensive material.

The talk will be given by John Fitzpatrick who represents the (ISC)² Foundation. This is a not for profit organisation that encourages community service and engagement that has a lasting effect on communities around the world by supporting community education programs.

The Safe and Secure Online brochure can be downloaded from
